REPUBLICAN CANDIDATES CALL FOR END TO GAMBLING WITH THE FUTURE OF AMERICA BY DEMOCRATS

Audience of Over 500 Men and Women Listen to Intelligent Discussion of Issues of Campaign—Comment Upon Scarcities in Government-Regulated Economy

(By Staff Correspondent)

DOYLESTOWN, Sept. 30—Five hundred men and women attending the Republican mass meeting in the Doylestown Armory on Saturday afternoon heard prominent Republican leaders of the State and nation call for an all-out campaign to put a stop to gambling with the future of America as now being carried on by the New Deal administration in Washington.

In every respect the Saturday meeting that followed the annual meeting of the Republican County Committee, was the most enthusiastic in many years, indicating the widespread interest in a change in national politics and a unanimous willingness to carry on the very successful Republican-controlled Pennsylvania government.

Attorney General James H. Duff, of Allegheny county, candidate for Governor, who said that he was always pleased to be able to come to Bucks county, said that "so far as he could see the Republican platform for November 5 is simply whether we have or have not had enough of an administration that does not believe in the American way of life."

"Bringing things right down to the present time the meat situation today is an example of the mess the national administration has made," Attorney General Duff declared. "Here we have an example of the national government interfering with private industry. Driving down today into Bucks county we saw plenty of live cattle, plenty of corn, and still there is no meat in the stores."

"The reason is that the government has decided that they know more about the meat business than the farmers in that business. Why, even the New York Times in today's issue has asked for the immediate end of government control of ceiling prices."

"Following World War No. 1 we also had a Democratic President but he believed in the development of genius in America, and he insisted that all the government controls after the war be restored to the people in time of peace."

"What a comparison that presents to the confusion in Washington today where we have a president who is telling the people that he knows it all, and that he does not intend to see price control released but, on the contrary, continued."

"I am in favor of social advancements of a substantial nature, but we must be certain that everything that is done for social advancement is within the American system."

"We must also have in power in Washington the kind of government that believes in the American type of finance; the kind of government that we have had in Pennsylvania under Governor Martin, a state that now has approximately $200,000,000 surplus in its treasury."

"It may surprise you to know that the aspirant for re-election to the outstanding Democratic office in this state, just this week has criticized us for accumulating that surplus. They cannot see why it was not thrown away and wasted as the New Deal has done."

"And it may be of interest to you to know that the C. I. O. and its Political Action Committee has said that Governor Martin and his entire Republican state ticket are enemies to society."

"I wonder what kind of society they referred to?"

The Republican candidate for Governor ended his address by stating that "America has done

About Lawyers, Strikes, and Hogs

by SAMUEL B. PETTESGILL "The Gentleman from Indiana"

Don't say that lawyers never propose anything new. One has. He is former attorney general of Missouri, John T. Barker. Mr. Barker suggests that the lawyers build a radio station (national coverage) and broadcast at 8 a. m. daily what the law is that day!

Crop reports, weather reports—why not? Maybe we ought to have a daily or hourly report on what our foreign policy is, also.

It is an actual fact that in Caesar's time, 2000 years ago, businessmen in Athens, Carthage, Alexandria, etc., hired soothsayers to tell them which way the Great Brain Deal in "Old Rome" by Henry J. Haskell. Government is always unpredictable.

HERE AND THERE IN BUCKS COUNTY TOWNS

Activities of Interest To All in The Various Communities

GLEANED BY SCRIBES

Two young people in Plumstead township, brother and sister, were stricken with infantile paralysis at their homes 10 days ago it is revealed.

The afflicted are Isabel and Benjie Myers, children of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin C. Myers, of near Point Pleasant. Isabel's attack is described as slight, while Benjie's condition is serious. Both patients are isolated at their home.

Isabel, 20, a graduate of Doylestown high school in 1943, is a senior at Penn State. She is a member of Alpha Omicron Pi, Iota Sigma Pi and Alpha Lambda; and she is majoring in the medical technology course. Her brother, Benjie, 18, graduated from Doylestown high school in June and is planning to enter college.

Fifty of Doylestown's outstanding dogs of various breeds cavorted around the judging ring at the second annual dog show Thursday on Burpee Memorial Playgrounds, Doylestown, under the direction of the Bucks County Kennel Club.

The affair was arranged by Peter Conlon, of the club's show committee, and together with a few associates, including Mrs. Ruth Hathaway, they presented a credible show.

DEMOCRATIC "STATEMENT"

All records for something or other are broken by the "statement" which the Democratic high command, with the assistance of President Truman, has launched upon a suffering public.

It is as empty as a bubble, as unsubstantial as a billboard. It is as unrealistic as a fish with fur or a pig with wings. So strange a curiosity is it that it ought to be kept in a museum—it will never be "kept" elsewhere!

Worried Mr. Average Citizen, torn between strikes, scarcities and inflation, will be pleased to learn that the New Dealers have finally fixed upon some objectives.

These purposes, proudly paraded before a palpitating people by public-paid publicists, all start with p—"p" as in putrid.

They are: Peace, production and progress. Unfortunately, the New Dealers didn't go quite far enough down the alphabet; what the public wants comes under the r's—Realism, results and Republicanism.

The catch to these objectives upon which the New Deal hopefuls are centering their attention is that the party which now presents them has been in the majority in all three branches of the Federal government for many years, and if the White House planners knew how to accomplish any of the three, they could have done so long ago.

Peace is a vanished dream to these New Dealers, as their $18 billion budget to rearm for a Third World War most clearly shows.

Production is falling off, not improving. If the New Dealers doubt this, let them try to buy meat, soap, lard, motor cars, houses, or any of a multitude of other essentials.

As for progress, there has been some of that—but it's all down hill!

This nation is far nearer to national bankruptcy, to runaway inflation, and to a collectivistic revolution, than it was on the day when President Truman took office.

Coming as near to downright whining as it is possible in the written word, the statement says—"again and again and again"—that the mean Republicans are to blame for anything which has gone wrong.

Specifically, they are blamed for the price-control muddle, for the housing fiasco, for the labor mess, for demoralization in agriculture, for the breakdown of reconversion, for social unrest, for people thinking taxes are too high, and various other troubles—including, of course, having brought about the world Depression in 1929!

BURGESS SCHMIDT OPENS BALL GAME

Tosses Out First Ball in The "Pennsylvania Week" Game Here

ST. ANN'S THE WINNERS

The "Pennsylvania Week" baseball game turned out to be a one-sided affair as the St. Ann's A. C. team continued to add more laurels to its credit by romping home with a 12-1 win over Edgely A. C.

Burgess Jacob C. Schmidt, Sr., tossed out the first ball and his aim to Catcher Matt Bragg was straight and true. The players of both teams autographed three balls, and in turn presented them to Burgess Schmidt, C. S. Wetherill, Jr., and Chief of Police Luford J. Jones, as a remembrance of "Pennsylvania Week."

But as far as the ball game went, it was all St. Ann's. The Bristol champions jumped on "Benny" Bintliffe in the first inning for four tallies and continued to add to this total throughout. Edgely never was in the game and up until the last inning did not get a runner beyond second base.

Fifteen safe hits rang out from the bluegums of the St. Ann's hitters and topping the assault was Matt Bragg who substituted behind the plate for Barney Ludwig. Bragg had three hits in four trips to the plate while Palumbo, Bert Barbetta, "Lou" Mari, and Tony Blancosino had three out of three. One of Mari's hits was a triple.

While the Suburban League champs were circling the bags at will, Edgely had a difficult time in solving the slants of the up-coming hurler, "Nate" Chichiletti, "Chick" (Continued on Page Four)

Long Illness Causes The Death of Mrs. K. Kline

Mrs. Katherine Kline, daughter of the late Thomas and Susan Kline, died at her home, 427 Pond street, yesterday morning. She had been ill for several months.

Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. Marian Gordon, Trenton, N. J.; and a sister, Mrs. Charlotte Ann Mercer, Bristol.

The Rev. J. H. Queen, pastor of Bethel A. M. E. Church, will conduct the service in Bethel Church tomorrow at two o'clock. Burial will be in Bristol Cemetery, with Robert C. Ruehl, funeral director, in charge. Friends may call at the church this evening.

WEEK-END BIRTHS

At Harriman Hospital on Saturday five births were recorded. They are as follows:

A son to Mr. and Mrs. Julius Cerutti, Schumacher Drive; a son to Mr. and Mrs. Peter Biedka, Bristol R. D. 1; a son to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gamble, Crofton; a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. John McGowan, Schumacher Drive; a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. George Cramer, Burlington, N. J.

YARDLEY MAN IS KILLED INSTANTLY IN UNUSUAL CRASH

Max P. Freitag, 50, Was Aiding Driver of Jack-Knifed Truck-Trailer

2ND CRASH OCCURS

Phila. Man, Driving Wrong Way on 1-Way Section, Hits First Truck

JANNEY, Sept. 30—A 50-year-old Yardley man was instantly killed while endeavoring to assist the driver of a truck and trailer after the latter's vehicle jack knifed here yesterday morning at about 1:15.

The victim, Max P. Freitag, of Yardley R. D., a filter operator of the Philadelphia Suburban Water Co., at Janney. Death was caused by internal injuries it is stated.

According to details gathered by Penna. State police and others investigating the case, Freitag, while at his work, heard a crash. Informing his assistant that everything was in order and that he (Freitag) would see if he could aid at the scene, he hurried to the Lincoln Highway nearby.

At the railroad underpass on Route 1 he found that a truck and trailer operated by Robert Kirkpatrick, 21, of Newtown, enroute toward Philadelphia, had jackknifed. It is said that Freitag was stooping down looking up under the truck-trailer, and attempting to advise Kirkpatrick, when another truck, operated by Horace B. Allen, 36, of Linmore street, Philadelphia, struck the Kirkpatrick trailer and knocked it over on Freitag. Allen, it is reported, was travelling in the (Continued on Page Three)

Sneak-Thief Steals A Hand-Bag from Window sill

A handbag, resting on the windowsill at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dayton Fegley, Landreth Manor, was stolen on Friday evening at 8:30. The intruder did not enter the house, it is stated, but pried a screen loose, then thrust his hand through to secure the handbag.

The bag contained two wallets, a small amount of money, identification cards, licenses, etc.

Mrs. Fegley was in the basement washing clothes at the time, and lights were on in some of the first floor rooms. Thinking she heard a noise, Mrs. Fegley at first decided it was the dog moving about on the first floor. Then deciding someone might be at the door she made her way to the first floor and turned on the porch light as she called "Who's there?" Seeing no one, she went to the lawn to take a coach inside, and at the time thought she heard someone hurrying along the street.

Mrs. Fegley returned to her duties in the basement. It was not until after her husband returned and she went to a dining-room window to close it that she missed her hand-bag and saw that the screen had been pried loose.

Pennsylvania State Police of Langhorne barracks were notified. Later in the evening a man, acting in a suspicious manner, was seen by another young woman resident of Landreth Manor in the rear lawn of her home.

PHILLIPS AND RICE WEDDING SOLEMNIZED

Young Crofton Woman Becomes Wife of South Langhorne Resident

150 AT THE RECEPTION

CROFTON, Sept. 30—An attractive fall wedding was solemnized in Wilkinson Memorial church at the hour of four on Saturday when Miss Isabella L. Rice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rice of Crofton, became the bride of Mr. Herbert D. Phillips of South Langhorne; son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Phillips.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Henry Heaver, pastor. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

The church was attractively decorated in Fall flowers.

Miss Ann Hedrich presided at the organ. She rendered "Consolation" and "Ave Maria". Mrs. Florence Winchester, soloist, sang "At Dawning", "I Love You Truly", "O Perfect Love".

The former Miss Rice chose as her maid of honor, Miss Margaret France of Crofton. Her gown, of dusty rose taffeta, featured a tall (Continued on Page Four)

HUNDREDS WITNESS POSTPONED PENNA. WEEK PARADE HERE

Commercial, Civic, Industrial, Educational Life of Area Depicted

MANY MUSIC GROUPS

Gaily - Decorated Floats Entered By Industries; Firemen Man Apparatus

Although a week late, the "Pennsylvania Week" parade here Saturday afternoon appropriately depicted the commercial, civic, industrial and educational life of the Bristol area. The parade, sponsored by the Bristol Chamber of Commerce, had been scheduled for September 21st, but due to inclement weather was postponed until last Saturday.

There were school bands, American Legion and Veteran of Foreign War drum and bugle corps, fire apparatus, industrial floats, new automobiles and those of ancient vintage, rescue units, and young Americans on foot and on gaily decorated bicycles.

Vehicular traffic had been entirely barred from the streets traversed by the parade, including Faragut avenue, Pond street, Jefferson avenue, Radcliffe Mill, Bath, Buckley, Beaver and Prospect Sts. Along the route hundreds of spectators, not only residents of the borough, but those attracted from nearby vicinities, who were generous in their applause of the features which met their particular fancy, were gathered.

Led by troopers from Langhorne barracks, Penna. State Police, in a police car, the parade got under way promptly at one o'clock upon the sounding of the fire siren. Burgess Jacob C. Schmidt, Sr., riding in a red jeep, served as chief marshal. Then came the Bristol high school band, with members in maroon and gray uniforms, followed by the colors, a guard and marching unit from Robert W. Bracken Post, 382, American Legion. Next was a group of 60 girls and boys, nucleus of the reorganized cadet corps of Bracken Post. The locomotive of Bucks Co. Vulture, #29, 40' n' 8', followed.

Girl Cadets of Scully-Bozarth Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, 1817, of Burlington, N. J., were next in line in their blue uniforms, with red and white trim. A marching unit with colors, of Chester V. Terchon Post, V. F. W., was next in line; then came Boy Scout troops from Andalusia, Crofton and Bristol; then Bristol Troop, No. 1 Girl Scouts. The decorated bicycle unit, including both girl and boy riders, followed.

2 Young Women Attend Lillian Della, A Bride

Making her way to the altar of St. Ann's R. C. Church to become the bride of Mr. Joseph J. Ciaella, 424 Dorrance street, on Saturday, Miss Lillian M. Della was accompanied by her father. There the ceremony was performed at 2:30 by the Rev. Peter Pinci.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Della, 218 Otter street, was attended by her sister, Miss Elizabeth Della, who served as maid of honor; and Miss Elizabeth Torano, Wilson avenue, as bridesmaid. Mr. Ciaella had as his best man, Mr. Michael LaSalle, Cedar street; with Mr. Leon Ciaella, brother of the groom, as usher. The groom is the son of Mr. Charles Ciaella, Dorrance street.

Vocalist for the occasion was Miss Marie Torano, Dorrance street.

A handsome gown of white satin with lace trim was selected by the bride. Her finger tip veil of net was attached to a heart-shaped headpiece of satin and orange blossoms. She wore white satin slippers, and carried white roses arranged in a colonial bouquet.

Miss Elizabeth Della and Miss Torano wore aqua toned gowns of taffeta. The headpiece of each was of rose toned feathers. Silver slippers were worn, and the two carried colonial bouquets of Better Times pink roses.

The evening reception, starting at 7:30, took place in St. Ann's club house, Wood street. Leaving for a week's trip to Massachusetts, Mrs. Ciaella was attired in a gray gabardine coat suit, black felt hat with white feather trim, black accessories and wore a lavender orchid. The couple will reside at 424 Dorrance street.

The bride and groom are both graduates of Bristol high school. Mrs. Ciaella has been employed at the Philco Corp. plant in Crofton. The groom served for three years in the U. S. Coast Guard. The bride's gifts to her attendants were gold bracelets; and the groom presented the best man and usher with wall-ets.

Miss Hazel Book is Wed To Mr. Samuel Watson

MORRISVILLE, Sept. 30.—An attractive fall wedding was solemnized on Saturday at four p. m. in the Presbyterian Church, here, when Miss Hazel Book, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Book, North Radcliffe street, Edgely, and Mr. Samuel Watson, son of Mrs. Dora Rose, Corless avenue, were united in marriage.

The Rev. Clifford Pollock officiated at the double ring ceremony, and Mr. Book gave his daughter in marriage. Organ music was provided by Miss Evans and her selections were "Oh, Promise Me," "Because," and "I Love You Truly."

The bride wore a champagne cardigan wool crepe suit with a white silk blouse. Her accessories were of brown, including a brown feather hat. She carried a bouquet of white roses encircling an orchid. The maid of honor, Miss Anna Book, Edgely, sister of the bride, chose a grey and black cardigan wool crepe suit, with white accessories and a white feather hat. Her bouquet was of red roses.

Mr. Chester Cumberland served as best man.

A reception was held in Dick's Hall, Edgely, with approximately 100 guests attending.

For the ceremony, Mrs. Book, mother of the bride, selected a grey silk dress with black accessories; while Mrs. Rose, mother of the groom, wore a black crepe dress trimmed in white with black accessories. Both wore corsages of white chrysanthemums.

The bride presented her attendant with a compact, while Mr. Watson gave a cigarette lighter to the best man.

Following a honeymoon to Niagara Falls, N. Y., and Ontario, Canada, the couple will reside with the groom's mother, here.

POWER DEFENSE WINS FOR ST. ANN'S IN FIRST GAME

Bristol Eleven Defeats The Chestnut Hill Mohawks By 20 to 0 Score

SCORE IN FIRST PERIOD
Final Score Was Registered During Last Minutes of Game

CHESNUT HILL, Sept. 29.—Exhibiting one of the most powerful defenses in its gridiron history, St. Ann's A. A. won its opening game of the Northeast Philadelphia Conference by whipping the Chestnut Hill Mohawks, 20-0, here, yesterday afternoon before a large crowd, most of whom followed the Saints from Bristol.

So great was the defensive play of the Bristol team, the Mohawks made but one first down and that was given them on a five-yard off-side penalty. Even the famed passing of the Mohawks faltered before the secondary defense of the Purple and Gold.

The "Saints" scored their initial touchdown in the first period. The Chestnut Hill team received the kickoff and shortly after a back fumbled and Gus Centonze recovered for St. Ann's on the 20. With Joe Schreiner leading the attack, the St. Ann's team made a first down on the five-yard line. With the line opening up a large hole, "Jim" Spencer threw through for the touchdown. Tom Proby was pulled out of the line to place-kick the extra point and give St. Ann's an early 7-0 edge.

The score rested as such until the last period. St. Ann's had several other chances to score but were pushed back, mostly by penalties. In the last quarter, the Saints started a march at mid-field. They made a first down on the 30 and chalked up another on the 15. Spencer found an opening through tackle and ploughed to the three-yard line. A five-yard penalty set back the Wood Streeters but Bobby Harroth shoved a flat pass to Joe Plebani who scored without a hand being laid on him. Proby again booted the extra point to make the count 14-0.

The final score was registered while the last minutes of the game were ticking away. St. Ann's got the ball on their 40 when "Reds" People intercepted an aerial but the drive failed and Chestnut Hill got the ball near their 30. The Chestnut Hill punter attempted to kick out of danger but Gene Mount broke through and with "Teddy" Sak aiding him blocked the kick. It rolled back to beyond the goal line where "Jackie" Louder fell on it for the touchdown. The extra point conversion try failed.

Coach "Pete" Bornice used an entire squad of 30 players in the contest. St. Ann's will play its second conference game on its home field next Sunday, Cheltenham, who was in the playoffs last season, will furnish the opposition.

Edwards in Lead For Season's Total Score

EDDINGTON, Sept. 29.—Walter "Doc" Edwards, of Kensington, won the feature event of Class II yesterday in the motorboat races at the Neshaminy Aquadrome.

As Edwards won the second heat, he boosted his total season's score to 901 and as next week will see the final races run, it is doubtful whether anyone can overcome the large lead amassed by the Kensington driver.

Peterman made his total points of the season 718 while Williams is still in second place with 807 points with Shannon having 598. Worcester is next with 461 while "Dutch" Sollday followed with 451.

CLASS I
1st Heat, 8 laps—1st, Gil Peterman, Bronx; 2nd, Francis "Doc" Williams, Eddington; 3rd, Edward VanHouten, Kearney, N. J.; 4th, Henry Shakeshaft, White Plains, N. Y. Time 3:22.3.

2nd Heat, 10 laps—1st, Doc Williams, 2nd, Gil Peterman; 3rd, Ed VanHouten; 4th, Shakeshaft. Time 4:18.8.

ored bodice with tiny collar and short sleeves.

Her heart-shaped headress was of broadened net. Matching taffeta mitts and silver sandals completed her costume. She carried a bouquet of pink gladioli.

Mrs. Charles Phillips, Bristol, sister-in-law of the groom, was dressed in golden yellow. Her basque effect bodice was of taffeta. It featured a shirred neckline and three-quarter length sleeves. The full skirt was of net over taffeta with corded taffeta trim. Her bouquet was of pale pink gladioli with matching ribbon. Her heart-shaped hat was tied in back. Gold slippers were worn. Miss Stella Saccus, bridesmaid, Burlington, N. J., wore a blue gown designed with taffeta bodice buttoned in back, three-quarter sleeves and a skirt of mouseline de soie over taffeta. Her hat of blue was styled like that of Mrs. Phillips. She carried pale pink gladioli and wore gold slippers.

The bride gown was of heavy white satin. It featured a basque effect bodice, square neckline and a full gathered skirt, ending in a train. Her long sleeves were buttoned at the wrists. She wore a full length bridal veil trimmed in tiny lace hearts, this being attached to a high beaded tiara. She wore a 100 year old opera pendant. The bride carried white gladioli and wore white kid slippers.

The groom's attendants were his brothers: Best man, Mr. Glen Phillips, South Langhorne; ushers, Mr. Charles Phillips, Bristol; and Mr. James Phillips, Crofton.

Mrs. Rice, mother of the bride, was attired in a street length dress of wine colored velvet, black accessories and wore a corsage of yellow gladioli. Mrs. Phillips, mother of the groom, wore a street length dress of aquamarine jersey with black accessories. Her corsage was of pink gladioli.

A reception was held at the Schumacher Post home, 150 guests attending. The reception hall was decorated with white crepe paper and wedding bells. The honeymoon will be spent in Reading.

The bride's travelling costume consisted of a black crepe dress with fuchsia trim, black accessories and fuchsia coat.

The groom recently returned from the Pacific area, he serving in the U. S. Marine Corps.

The couple will make their home with the bride's parents.

Personal Shower Given For Miss Dorothy Bassett

Mrs. William Shores, Wilson street, gave a personal shower honoring Miss Dorothy Bassett, Wilson street, on Friday evening. The evening was enjoyed playing games and refreshments were served buffet style.

LANGHORNE GOES DOWN TO DEFEAT BEFORE RIVERSIDE

Scrappy Playing of Langhorne Fails to Result in Victory

LOSE BY ONE POINT
Failure to Score in Last 30 Seconds Loses Game, 7 to 6

RIVERSIDE, Sept. 29.—A scrappy Langhorne High eleven went down to a one-point defeat Saturday night as the extra point conversion gave Riverside High a 7-6 triumph.

Both teams scored touchdowns in the third period within five minutes of each other. But in the last 30 seconds of the game, Langhorne missed its best opportunity to win the contest. "Inky" Schneider unleashed a 45-yard pass to "Doc" Richter who juggled the ball and dropped it over the Jersey team's goal line.

Riverside was first to score when Kiehn went over from the eight-yard line and then place-kicked what proved to be the winning point.

Shortly after the touchdown, Langhorne received possession of the ball on their opponents' 45-yard line. Schneider whipped a pass to Semerian Brown who made a beautiful catch and ran 20 more yards to cross the flail chalk stripe.

Before the half was over, Riverside again threatened and was one foot away from the goal-line when Langhorne held for three downs and on the fourth try a field goal was unsuccessful.

Langhorne had the better of the playing in the second half of the tilt, after being outplayed in the first half.

Coach DeRisi, of the Redskins, was well-pleased with the showing of his boys against the strong Riverside eleven. His line did exceptionally well, especially Bob Griffin at center who backed up the line. In the backfield, Schneider and "Dickie" Lukens played a fine game.

Lineups:
(L) Langhorne (R) Riverside (T)
L. Fizzano L. E. Seimkunis
Tucker L. E. Kiehn
Kaldia L. G. Cuzzuppe

Riverside 0 7 0 0-7
Touchdowns: Brown, Kiehn
Point after touchdown: Kiehn
Substitutions for Langhorne—S. Brown, M. George, Eimenkel, Detweiler, Knos, H. Ferrell, Cameron; for Riverside—Kiehn.
Time of quarters: 15 minutes.

Hundreds Witness Postponed Pa. Week Parade

Bucks County Rescue Squad entered in the parade an emergency truck with boat, two ambulances, iron lung drawn by a jeep, and marching unit composed of men and women of the corps. The Bristol Blood Donors had a display demonstrating their work during the past summer at Silver Lake.

On a truck was a miniature beach, with life guards in a chair supervising the bathers. Ready at hand was an inhalator and a rescue boat. Next was a group of horse-women and horse-men.

The Chamber of Commerce float showed a group of girls and boys assembled in a "Board of Directors Meeting", with the slogan "With your support we will grow." "Will Seip and His Dude Ranch Cowhands" entered a float on which were piled bales of hay surrounding a small string band.

James C. Sutton entered two ancient automobiles in the parade. One, a 1907 two-cylinder Maxwell runabout was operated by Sutton, he being accompanied by William C. Ludascher. The 1907 Orient backboard was driven by Thomas A. Collier, he being accompanied by his dog "Sparkplug".

Bristol Processing Corp., one of Bristol's newest industries, and the third largest in the community, entered an attractive float. Atop the blue and gold decorated vehicle appeared a huge keystone advertising the company's products. On either side of the keystone were two young women, each wearing a "Bonmouton" coat. The models were Ida Cenci and Lucy Cianbella, employees of the firm. The one coat was three-quarter length with wide cuffs; while the other, a full-length model, had full-cut sleeves tightly fitted at the wrists.

The home of the Bristol Processing Corporation which appeared in Saturday's parade sponsored by the Bristol Chamber of Commerce in recognition of "Pennsylvania Week." Bristol Processing Corporation, one of Bristol's newest industries and the third largest in the community, produces Bonmouton, a high-quality, plastic-coated processed lambskin which is advertised in the nation's leading magazines. The two young ladies wearing Bonmouton coats are Ida Cenci and Lucy Cianbella, employees of Bristol Processing Corporation.

Superior Zinc Corp. entered a truck in the national colors, on which were displayed bars of zinc spelter, bags of zinc dust, and packages of zinc oxide, products of the corporation. Bancroft-Hickey entered a truck drawing a reproduction of a grinding wheel; also a station wagon. There was a fleet of trucks entered by Supreme Motor Freight Carriers; and a float and two trucks of Manhattan Soap Co. On the float was a group of "Sweethearts".

Proby's sound truck headed a division of new automobiles and trucks, including displays by Weed Chevrolet Co.; Torano's Studebaker featuring an old Studebaker on which appeared the words "Still Rolling"; Bristol Ford Motor Co., including a model T and a number of new cars and trucks; a Jeep exhibited by Foster & Pastore which attracted considerable attention; "Hell-Drivers"; large float entering by Adams and Wildblood exhibiting motorized farm and household equipment, followed by a Kaiser car; P. J. Eggert, new tank truck; Fenton P. Larissie oil trucks; Percy G. Ford Motor Co., new Dodge car; Neibauer Bus Co., new bus.

The ancient Studebaker car was entered by George LaRue, of Bristol Township; and the 1926 Ford by Theodore Miller, Bristol Township. The fire company division was led by MacFarland Post cadets of Burlington, N. J. In green and white uniforms, Clifford Hagerman, chief of Bristol Consolidated Fire Dept., in his chief's car, lead the firemen. In order they were: Ladies Auxiliary of Parkland Fire Co., No. 1, in blue and white uniforms, and apparatus of Parkland Co.; then apparatus of the following companies: William Penn, Hulmeville; Crofton No. 1; Headly Manor of Edgely; Eddington; Falls Township; Union of Cornwells Heights; Cornwells Co., No. 2, with canteen car; Bristol Co., No. 2, with canteen car; Bristol Volunteer Fire Co., No. 6; Bristol Consolidated Fire Department; Goodwill Co. No. 3, and their "Smoketown" Division including auxiliary. These blackface comedians, accompanied by a 15-piece section of Ferko's string band, amused the spectators along the route of the parade, and caused consternation as they played a miniature stream of water upon the crowds lining the sidewalk. Entries by the Neshaminy Aquadrome, showing two speedboats, brought up the rear.

The route of the parade was well policed by Bristol police and Bristol special police under direction of Chief Linford J. Jones. Officers were stationed at strategic intersections to guide traffic.

Scholars Are Promoted At A Rally Day Service

HULMEVILLE, Sept. 29.—At a combined service of the Church and Sunday School units yesterday morning in Neshaminy Methodist Church, a Rally Day service was held. The program included a baptism, promotions of scholars, selections by the scholars, and consecration of teachers.

The pastor, the Rev. Richard R. Gay, baptized James Elwyn Neitzel. Sponsors were the baby's mother and uncle, James Haik.

Announcements of promotions were made by Kenneth Conly, superintendent of the Sunday School, these including the following: Primary department to junior department: "Jack" Crawford, William Simmers, "Betty" Burns, Carol Jean Rongley, Elaine Straw, Joyce Bamberg, "Peggy" Bilger, Lorraine Keen, Edith Dunlap, Lorraine Smith; junior to intermediate department: "Jack" Moyer, "Dick" Shapcott, Jeanne Prickett, Beatrice Blean and Dorothy Fowler.

Four new teachers have been added to the Sunday School roster, namely, Miss Mildred Benner, Mrs. Samuel K. Faust, Mrs. Kimbel Faust and Mrs. Warren.

Other numbers on the program were: Organ prelude, Miss Clara L. Illick; Scripture lesson, the Rev. Mr. Gay; song, "Win Them One by One," primary and beginners' departments, with Miss Adeline E. Reetz as accompanist; offertory, Mrs. Richard R. Gay, with "We Give Thee But Thine Own," sung by the junior department; "Legend" (Tschakowsky), youth choir, with Mrs. Gay directing; sermonette, "Ringing True," the Rev. Mr. Gay.

The offering of the day will be used for the work of Christian education in the Philadelphia conference.

German shepherd, won "first" for the largest dog in the show, Carolyn Schneider, of Doylestown, with a miniature pinscher, won "first" for the smallest in show.

A sportsman's dream was realized recently by Matthew Birkmaier, New Britain, who has returned from an antelope and elk hunting trip to the famous section around Jackson Hole, Wyoming.

The area was described before the Bucks County Fish and Game Association by Birkmaier on Thursday.

The host of the party with whom the Bucks county sportsman hunted, shot the world's record antelope.

Some parties, Birkmaier explained, shot the antelope from pick-up trucks used to go over the sage brush territory, while others stalked them by crawling through the sage brush.

The antelopes roam in herds of 100 to 200.

Birkmaier got within 300 yards of a herd, and although he used more than one bullet, he did get an antelope.

Following this kill the party went for elk which were easier to get than the antelope. Birkmaier got a good elk rack.
